A JOURNEY OF JEWISH MUSIC

to be held Sunday, April 14th at Carroll University to celebrate our 80th anniversary

By LAURIE SCHWARTZ / Fundraising Chair

Save the date for an amazing afternoon celebrating CEEW's 80th anniversary April 14th at Carroll University.

You will be taken on a journey of Jewish music and its influence on popular American music past and present. Learn the influence on music such as West Side Story, Wicked, Fiddler on the Roof and Irving Berlin's White Christmas.

Enjoy an unforgettable afternoon of music narrated by Cantor Deborah Martin with performances by Cantor Martin, Cantor Richard Newman, Hazzan Jeremy Stein,

Cantor Karen Berman, cantorial soloist Marsha Fensin, the Carroll University choir and A Band'n All Hope, the Temple klezmer band.

"We have a rich heritage of different musical styles and languages because of our journeys in the diaspora," Cantor Martin said. "We wish to share the beauty of Jewish music with you as we celebrate 80 years of bringing progressive Jewish life to Waukesha County and the surrounding areas."

There will be a question and answer period after the concert.

Prepare to enjoy a once-in-a-lifetime educational music journey. Contact Laurie Schwartz at L.Schwartz@waukeshatemple.org for more information.

Tickets available at: musicjourney.eventbrite.com

LET CANTOR MARTIN AND CARING COMMITTEE KNOW: Do you know a Temple member who is ill or in need of spiritual support of any kind (i.e. loss of job, divorce, difficult life transitions, etc.)? You can contact Cantor Martin at 608-698-4363 or spiritualleader@waukeshatemple.org, or contact a member of CEEW's Caring Committee.

What does being part of a synagogue mean to you?

In ancient days, the Israelites were asked to donate gold, precious stones, linens and other valuable items to make a beautiful tabernacle where God would reside.

They also were asked to bring sacrifices — animals, first fruits, vegetables, choice grains, etc. — to thank God for their blessings and to ask for forgiveness when they went astray.

Obviously, today we realize that God does not need these physical things. However, there are other needs in the world. Many go hungry, live without shelter or adequate clothes. We in the Jewish community feel a need, the need to keep Jewish life going.

In Waukesha County, we know what it is like to be a minority religion. Our children are lucky if there's even one other Jewish child in their class or school. Therefore, it is extremely important for us to have a progressive Jewish presence in our community.

Congregation Emanu-El has been meeting that need for the past 80 years. We will celebrate our 80th anniversary with a wonderful concert on Sunday April 14th at 3 p.m. in Shattuck Auditorium at Carroll University. Many of my cantor colleagues and I are donating our time and talent to this narrated concert on the journey of Jewish music across the globe and throughout Jewish history.

Many have donated their time and efforts to this concert. I especially want to thank Laurie Schwartz for taking care of the tickets, publicity and collection of sponsors and ads for the program. I also want to thank Tom Braatz for his assistance to Laurie. I want to thank Jan and Bill Lowell for the creation and printing of the beautiful flyers and for agreeing to help us create a program for this event.

Many of you have donated money to sponsor the concert or buy ads, and I thank you SO much for your help. It is not too late to come forward and help, either with your time and efforts or with

PLEASE HELP PAY OFF OUR MORTGAGE THROUGH CONCERT BOOKLET ADS, SPONSORSHIPS

Because we are a very small congregation, we struggle yearly with shortfalls in our budget. It is my hope that the proceeds from this concert will help to pay off our mortgage, providing extra money in our budget to pay our bills.

Although our congregation is a very spiritual and uplifting place, it takes money to pay the bills so that we can remain a Jewish light in a small community, helping our children and adults feel pride and joy in their Jewish roots. Paying off the mortgage will complete our ownership of this building and help us survive as a congregation.

In antiquity, when the tabernacle was completed, the Israelites felt great joy and satisfaction in having contributed to it. We, too, can feel that sense of joy and fulfillment as we fundraise to keep our doors open to all the generations that will enter Temple Emanu-El for the NEXT 80 years. Here they will be able to connect spiritually with God, finding their divine purpose.

Having a Temple and a sanctuary gives us a goal and a space to go every week, not just once in a while. It gives us community and a common purpose of doing God's holy work.

Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel tells us that God's presence would travel with the Israelites, but they needed to create the space (tabernacle or sanctuary), in order to create it within themselves. Let us make sure we can keep our holy space and our congregation alive and thriving.

Moses asked the Israelites to bring gifts from those whose hearts were willing. I hope you, like the Israelites, will have willingness and joy of heart to help sponsor this event and ask others to do so as well, so that we will have enough money to pay off, or at least significantly pay down, our mortgage.

God's work needs our partnership, and I hope you will join us in that holy work.

Thank you so much!

FROM CANTOR MARTIN: "This concert is a gift I wanted to give to CEEW; not just a gift of music, but a gift of protecting the future of this congregation by making it possible to cut the costs of the Temple. A lot of people are working very hard to make this a special 80th anniversary event, so please give generously, as your heart moves you."

Help the Temple by buying an ad or sponsorship in our concert booklet

By LEE FENSIN
Bulletin Contributor

Don't feel bad if you can't sing in tune or play an instrument: You can still be part (A BIG PART) of our 80th anniversary concert at Carroll University on Sunday, April 14th.

We are creating a concert booklet for you to take out an ad promoting your business or just congratulating CEEW, or you can purchase a sponsorship. If you are able to do that, your voice will be heard loud and clear that having a synagogue in Waukesha County is important to you. Proceeds will go toward paying off — or at least down — our mortgage.

"Hopefully people understand the necessity to free up some money for a new clergyperson (after Cantor Martin retires in 2020)," fundraising chair Laurie Schwartz said.

Government officials take note of CEEW's 80th anniversary

Before the March 11th Board of Trustees meeting, there was a presentation of congratulations on our 80th anniversary. Waukesha Mayor Shawn Reilly was joined by other government leaders in recognizing with their various proclamations and congratulations to Congregation Emanu-El of Waukesha on the occasion of its 80th anniversary. From left: Representing Sen. Ron Johnson, Ginger Kollmansberger, his regional director for southeast Wisconsin; CEEW Education Director Carrie Barbakoff; CEEW's Spiritual Leader, Cantor Deborah Martin; Sisterhood Co-President Denise Stodola; Reilly; CEEW President Ann Meyers; and representing U.S. Sen. Tammy Baldwin, Vanessa Llanas, her regional representative for southeast Wisconsin. U.S. Rep. James Sensenbrenner also sent his congratulations.

DON'T FORGET FOOD BIN: We are reminded that if each of us brings a food item for the Waukesha Food Pantry each time we come to Temple, the bin could be overflowing. Also, the tzedakah box in the upstairs lobby is dedicated to the Waukesha Food Pantry. Please help.

CEEW's various committees hard at work

I'm old enough to be able to observe that many of us rotate in and out (and in) with various activities and interests in our lives. I can't count how many times I've taken up knitting.

But it's true for involvement in organizations and in Temple life, too.

If your involvement in Temple life has meant you haven't attended services much or come into the building frequently for a while, you might not be aware of how busy our Jewish home is every week. Most of us go through a phase like that at some time or other. (I have.)

The hard work going into our April 14th concert at Carroll University is bringing results. We're selling tickets and even more importantly, finding sponsors for the event. Because the proceeds will be used to pay down (dare I say, "pay off"?) our mortgage, this is music to our ears. (Pun intended.) More tickets need to be sold and more sponsors are needed; our mortgage is about $100K. But we're making progress.

Our many different adult and children's programs and activities are well-attended. The Religious School and weekday Hebrew programs are humming. Sisterhood is holding its annual Heritage Dinner on Sunday, held its pajama collection (a great success) this month and is planning future projects to benefit our Temple.

You may recall we received a grant recently that we're using in part for digital marketing. The same day we met with the marketing people, the campaign was operating. You'll notice CEEW events in your Facebook feed for the next six weeks or so. Please share them. We'll evaluate the campaign's effectiveness after that time and see if the response from potential members and other metrics merit further investment in this method of advertising.

Because the grant for this advertising is awarded on a reimbursement basis, several members have generously put forward funding to pay for the service until the grant money comes through. The overall purpose is to make us even busier and our membership larger.

Finally, committees are already at work preparing for the annual meeting. Members' participation will be needed this year for two items beyond the usual business.

- First, members will be asked to formally approve the establishment of the CEEW endowment. The endowment's bylaws require this vote to be taken.

- Second, as part of the clergy search committee's work, members will have the opportunity to provide their perspectives and desires relating to our next spiritual leader/rabbi following Cantor Martin's retirement in June 2020. (While this seems like a distant event, due to requirements of the cantorial and rabbinical schools' placement departments, we must submit applications for candidates by early fall, 2019. The sooner we submit applications, the better chance we have of attracting multiple candidates.)

One other committee is also working very hard and needs help: the nominating committee. We will have a new president, but the committee has not yet (as of this writing) found someone to say "yes" when asked to serve.

If you have considered this position but are concerned it may be too big of a job, let's chat. As the song goes, "It ain't necessarily so."

WEATHER CLOSINGS: Weather related (and other) closings at the synagogue will be posted on WTMJ TV4 (Channel 4) and WISN-TV (Channel 12).

Accept each person where they are

April, or on the Jewish calendar Nisan, is known as the beginning of spring.

Often we think, "April showers bring May flowers." Definitely in Wisconsin we are hoping for the end of winter and the beginning of spring. Along with spring comes the holiday of Passover. At the Congregation Emanu-El of Waukesha Religious School, there will be an intergenerational model seder on Sunday, April 7th, from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Passover is one of the most commonly celebrated holidays among Jewish people around the world. When most people think of Passover they think about the 10 plagues, or the matzah, or the four cups of wine or grape juice, or the four questions.

One part of the Passover haggadah (Passover story book) that I want to focus on is a famous part where four children are described – one who is wise, one wicked, one simple and one who does not know how to ask a question.

Traditionally described as four sons, however, I want to be all inclusive and describe them as four children. When looking for a way to share with you an interpretation of the four children, I found the article: Answering the Four Children: What to make of the wise, wicked, simple, and silent children at the seder by Rabbi Miriam T. Spitzer.

Rabbi Spitzer writes, "Four children there were at seder, one wise, one wicked, one simple, and one who did not know how to ask a question. But which child was which? Was the wise child smart – or a smart aleck? Was the wicked child bad – or challenging? Was the simple child really simple? And was the fourth child unable to ask a question – or unwilling to do so? Which one was which?"

"Four children there were at the seder, and we all take it for granted that one was wise and one was wicked, one was simple, and one did not know how to ask. But imagine that a parent declared: 'I have four children: This one is the brain, this one the troublemaker, this one the dope and this one the silent.' Would we let such a statement pass? Would we let a teacher get away with

CARRIE BARBAKOFF

saying, 'I have four students, the brilliant one, the idiot, the loudmouth, and the one who never says a word?'

"Perhaps the Haggadah deliberately provides caricatures of four types of children to teach us something about the care we must take when we answer questions. Each person at our seder is coming from a different place. This one is older and more experienced. That one has never been to seder before. That other one was sick and did not expect to make it to seder, but is there. That one never learned to read Hebrew, and that one knows French.

"By telling us the story of the four children, each with a distinct question and each with a distinct answer, the Haggadah is telling us to accept each person where they are and to begin from there. The questions that are asked must be addressed, and the questions that are not asked must be addressed.

"Each one of us contains aspects of each child; each one of us is sometimes wise and sometimes wicked, sometimes simple and sometimes silent. We are the four children. As such we ask questions and we provide answers, different answers for different needs."

As parents and teachers we need to look at each of the children in our care, and give them the knowledge and understanding to be committed members of the Jewish community and ready to take their place in the Temple and the wider Jewish world.

Why is this Passover different from all other Passovers? Every year at Passover, we hold a Seder retelling the story of the hardships the Jewish people faced in their escape from slavery to freedom.

Our Chocolate Seder is a

CEEW's first Chocolate Seder was held in 2017. Rachel Baum, a professor at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, will present a most entertaining program on Thursday, May 9th, beginning at 7 p.m. at CEEW.

The program was postponed from February because of weather conditions.

There will be light snacks before the program. Friends and family are always welcome at Adult Education Committee programs.

The program is titled: "Oy vey! New

UWM Professor
Rachel Baum

Jewish-American Film & TV, and the Future of Judaism." Baum will discuss what we can tell about Jewish identity from the films and television shows created, acted in and viewed by Jewish Americans.

While Baum says earlier generations were cautious in their on-screen expressions of Jewishness, she adds that today's young people are claiming their right "to be just as messed up" as their non-Jewish peers.

Baum will show clips from current movies and television shows and analyze what they say about Jewish identity now and in the future.

HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY
SUNDAY, APRIL 28TH, 10:30 A.M.

HOWARD MELTON was 10 years old living in Lithuania when the war began and he was immediately forced into a ghetto.

Howard, his mother and his two sisters were then sent from the ghetto to a labor camp in Latvia, where he volunteered to work on a farm.

Howard's younger sister was sent to Auschwitz in 1943 where she was killed in January of 1945. His mother and older sister were both killed in Stutthof.

Howard, now 88 years old, was sent to the Dachau concentration camp where the conditions were very harsh and people suffered from hunger and exhaustion. In 1945 he was forced to march for 10 days. At the end of the march, Howard was rescued by the American troops. At age 14, Howard weighed only 55 pounds.

Both Howard and his father survived the war. He moved to New York City in 1949, but later moved to Milwaukee to be near his friend, Albert Beder. He joined the Air Force in 1950 and was married in 1951.

Sisterhood thanks congregation for support

RETURNING TO OUR ROOTS is the theme for Sisterhood's 10th Heritage Anniversary Dinner, which will be held on March 31st. Many thanks to those who signed up, and are supporting the most appetizing Sisterhood fundraiser of the year.

An annual event, the dinner is always open to the public, and welcomes friends and neighbors who join our CEEW families for the food and festivities. This year, we're including a wine pull, a 50-50 raffle and bargains from our gift shop.

Members and guests have the opportunity to enjoy our savory brisket, roasted chicken, tzimmes, potato kugel, noodle kugel, couscous, salads, along with chopped liver, herring and more. A dessert buffet is always included, plus assorted rolls and beverages.

Many thanks to Carol O'Neil, who is our dinner coordinator, and Sisterhood committee members Barb Dailey, June Kulakow, Sara Anson, Jennifer Ecker, Judy Shabman, Denise Stodola, Cindy Levy and Sandra Small. We especially thank all who contribute to and attend our Sisterhood events.

SISTERHOOD

CO-PRESIDENTS

DENISE STODOLA

SANDRA SMALL

Security at the event will be provided by the Waukesha County Sheriff's Department and funded by Sisterhood.

It's important to note that the money raised from our Sisterhood anniversary dinner, and other Sisterhood fundraisers, go directly back to our congregation in the forms of grants and donations. The total of documented Sisterhood donations from 2009 to to early 2019 was more than $16,000. Donations included confirmation and B'nai Mitzvah gifts, Religious School donations, security, grants, camp scholarships, Tikkun Olam and more.

It's been said that volunteering, donating time, money and effort to our Temple community is doing "God's Work." Many thanks to our CEEW community for generously supporting Sisterhood fundraising projects and events.

PLEASE DONATE PAJAMAS

There is still time to contribute to Sisterhood's Tikkun Olam Purim Crib project, which was coordinated by Sandy Villa.

This year, Sisterhood's project highlights school "Pajama Day," which is an annual event in almost every public school. Many children in our Waukesha schools may not have presentable pajamas to wear to school on the school's annual Pajama Day. This includes 39 percent of children in the Waukesha public schools who qualify for free or reduced lunch.

A collection crib has been placed outside of the gift shop for your Pajama Day contribution. We hope that our generous congregants will take advantage of seasonal winter discount sales on pajamas for students, grades K-8.

Please note that the new date for the Sisterhood Annual Meeting will be Sunday, June 9th, 11:30 a.m. at the Temple. Joanne Wagner is our scheduled speaker. More information will follow. Please hold the date, as our Sisterhood's Annual Meeting agenda is being planned.

SPRING KALLAH: A weekend of learning, spirituality, fun

By CINDY LEVY
Past Sisterhood President

The WRJ Midwest District holds a Kallah right in our backyard every Spring at OSRUI.

This is a wonderful opportunity to meet women from Minnesota, Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin. It is a weekend of learning, spirituality and fun.

Because it is so close, our Sisterhood members have the choice of staying at OSRUI for the weekend or just coming for all or part of the weekend. The Kallah is being held April 26-28. Register at <https://wrj.org/wrj-midwest-district-events>.

This year's theme is tolerance. Jessi Kingston will be our guest for Kallah. She served as the Director of Human Rights and Equal Economic Opportunity for the City of Saint Paul, Minn. from 2012 to 2018. In this role, Kingston spearheaded several innovative large-scale change initiatives to fulfill the agency's mission of championing justice and equity by confronting issues of discrimination and providing innovative avenues for accessibility and economic opportunities for all residents and businesses. Kingston's professional and personal experiences make her uniquely qualified to explore the issue of tolerance with us.

Come early and join the fun! We will be offering Pre-Kallah workshops at 3 p.m. on April 26th. Choose from one of the following:

1. Yizkor Services (This will be the only time we will be having this service.)
2. Afternoon Walk (weather permitting)
3. Make Matzah Covers

All meals and snacks will follow the Ashkenazi dietary restrictions for Pesach through Saturday dinner.

Extend your experience and stay Saturday night at no additional cost, including dinner and breakfast. Late Saturday night is Mah Jongg, Canasta and other games.

Please give yourself the gift of 24 hours or a full weekend at OSRUI with your Sisters from the WRJ Midwest District.

BREWERS GAME

Please join us at the Milwaukee Brewers game on Tuesday, June 25th for a night of entertainment and fun. The Brewers will be hosting the Seattle Mariners, and the time is 7 p.m. We will be sitting together in the club-level outfield section.

Any questions, please call Elly Kraines at: (262) 785-1674.

Tickets are $42 per person and include a club outfield seat and voucher good for $10 of food / drinks. Elly has secured 20 tickets at that price, and she said, "Tickets are going fast because of what was accomplished (by the Brewers) last year. After the 20 are sold, the price will go up."

Please send this reservation form, along with your check made out to CEEW, so that Elly receives it no later than June 4th, to:

Elly Kraines, 17110 Lake Road, Brookfield, WI 53005.

COMING IN JUNE FROM ADULT ED COMMITTEE

You Must Have Been a Beautiful Baby!

BUT, WHO ARE YOU?

By ADRIAN RICHFIELD
Adult Ed Co-Chair and Bulletin Co-Editor

The CEEW Adult Education Committee has our annual end-of-the-year event planned for Saturday, June 15th.

*The program is called “You Must Have Been a Beautiful Baby.” It will include a wonderful catered meal, some big band music, songs, musical performances and other entertainment as well. SAVE the DATE!

Can You Guess Who She Is?

She is part of a three-generations family as grandmother; her daughter and granddaughter also are members at CEEW.

And Who Is This Guy?

He is a long-time CEEW member, has been on the board and knows about quid pro quo.

One fun feature will be our poster board of baby and youth pictures of our CEEW members and a contest to guess who is who?

There will be hints for each picture, and each month the bulletin will feature a couple of baby pictures for you to ponder and guess about.

Please send your jpeg baby/youth pictures (with name) to Adrian Richfield (susu78@aol.com) for upcoming bulletins and for the event.

YOURS MIGHT BE DECLARED BEST BABY PICTURE OF THE GROUP!

WHAT'S GOING ON AROUND TEMPLE: A copy of the Temple calendar that is kept on the Temple website is as up-to-date as possible so members and prospective members can see what's going on. If you are interested in scheduling a Temple event or meeting, please contact Lee Fensin at Lee.Fensin@waukeshatemple.org.

תודה רבה

Todah Rabbah Many Thanks to . . .

- Laurie Schwartz, for helping Cantor Martin with the April 14th concert. "It has been a lot of work and I thank her immensely for all the hard work she has done," Cantor Martin said. Thanks to Tom Braatz, as well, for helping her, and thank you to everyone who has sponsored the concert and bought ads and tickets.
- Jan and Bill Lowell, who created and donated beautiful flyers and the tickets for the concert.
- Our educators, who took part in the Feb. 22nd Educators Shabbat service. They are Ann Meyers, Joe Dailey, Mari-Claire Zimmerman, Ilene Jauquet, Marie Loeffler, Education Director Carrie Barbakoff and Cantor Martin.
- Parents of Religious School students, who sponsored the Oneg following the Educators Shabbat service.
- Denise Stodola and Mari-Claire Zimmerman, who put the soup in Soup-er Shabbat on March 1st. And thanks to everyone who helped with setup and cleanup, and to Mari-Claire for organizing the monthly feast.
- Students in the first- through fourth-grade classes, and teachers Ilene Jauquet and Marie Loeffler, who helped Cantor Martin and Education Director Carrie Barbakoff with the March 1st Shabbat service.
- The Adult Education Committee, for bringing Israeli emissary Keren Weisshaus to CEEW on March 7th to speak.
- Marie Loeffler and her student, Maddie Baumann, for chanting prayers during the March 8th Shabbat service.
- Josh Elkin, Zack Jauquet and Josie Jauquet, who represented our congregation's youth by joining Cantor Martin on the bima at Congregation Sinai during the MCRC Shabbat service on March 15th.
- Sisterhood for subsidizing the cost for Cantor Martin and Lia Ecker to attend the Small Cities OSRUI Retreat.

Please send your Todah Rabbah items to:
temple-news@hotmail.com.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES NOTES

March 11th Meeting

- The meeting began with a formal presentation of congratulations on our 80th anniversary. (Please see the photographs on Page 4.) Waukesha Mayor Shawn Reilly was joined by staff people representing Sen. Tammy Baldwin and Sen. Ron Johnson. Rep. James Sensenbrenner sent a letter of congratulations.
- Cantor Martin's d'var commented on Parashat Vayikra, the first part of Leviticus, a portion that deals with sacrifices. She said the hard work of our CEEW volunteers can be seen as a form of sacrifice for the greater good as we work to allow Judaism to flourish in our small corner of the world.
- Education Director Carrie Barbakoff reported on a number of school-related items. She and teachers Ilene Jauquet and Mari-Claire Zimmerman attended the LOMED class, a four-hour professional development class about Israel. Two presenters came from the iCenter for Israel Education. She also said the school's model seder is scheduled for April 7th. She expects a speaker from The Nathan and Esther Pelz Holocaust Education Resource Center in Milwaukee for Yom Hashoah on April 28th.
- President Ann Meyers reported on planning for the June 2nd annual meeting and said she anticipates that CEEW members will have all related documents by May 24th. She called on committee chairs to have reports sent to her by May 10th. She hopes CEEW will be able to "boost our web presence" in ways that are wise and workable.
- Past President Phil Schuman reported on the ongoing work of the Clergy Search Committee. He, President Ann Meyers and Vice President Mark Levy have been in communication with the Central Conference of American Rabbis (CCAR), the leadership organization of Reform rabbis.
- Treasurer Alan Meyers said congregation membership has remained unchanged for many months. CEEW has a total of 78 member units as follows: 39 family units, 35 individual units and 4 individual associate units.

New York Times — bestselling memoir Unorthodox (2012), Feldman positions herself as the quintessential wandering Jew.

"Exodus tells the story of Feldman's journey of self-discovery, which takes her from the American South to the Jewish ghettos of Old World Europe."

She travels the world and spends time relating to the comings and goings of her personal experiences.

Feldman is originally from the Satmar

CEEW Book Club Meeting

What: Discussion of Exodus: A Memoir, led by Judy Schneider

Date: Wednesday, April 3rd

Time: 1:30 p.m.

Where: Judy Schneider's home community of Williamsburg, Brooklyn, a Yiddish speaking Hasidic sect founded by Holocaust survivors. They believed that Hitler's extermination of the Jews was God's punishment for European Jewish assimilation.

She now resides in Berlin, Germany, with her son. Exodus: A Memoir (2014) continues the story Feldman began in Unorthodox (2012) about her escape from the Satmar Hasidic community.

We will also briefly discuss City of Falling Angels by John Berendt, which was cancelled last month.
