Learning from Disaster

Oct. 13, 2020

Presented by Prof. Dan Haumschild,
Exec. Dir., Bardejov Jewish Preservation Comm.
Former Director of Education, Holocaust
Education Resource Center (HERC)

A Prayer for Peace in Times of Trouble

Lord, give us peace that we may shine brightly in a dark world. Grant us the courage to live faithfully to our highest values even in the midst of hard times. Let our faith in each other be the beginning of wisdom and compassion rather than allowing fear to drive our actions.

Help us to live strongly in the midst of a world that needs to know peace. We pray for our brothers and sisters and LGBTQI siblings of the world, for we are of one family.

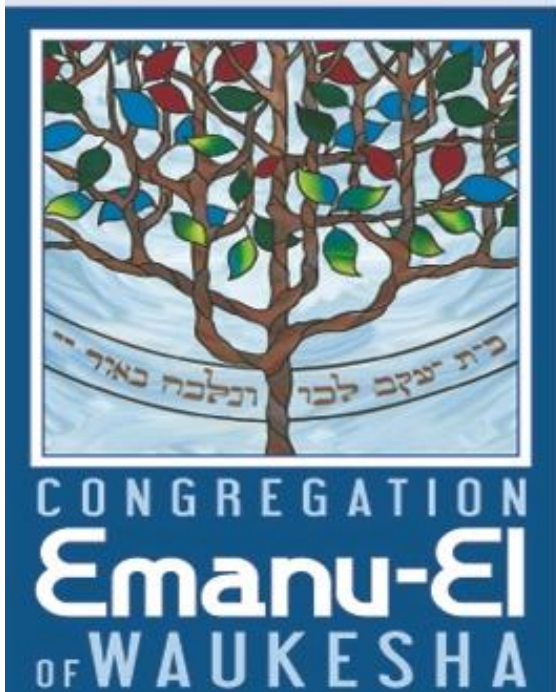

Show us mercy and heal those who are suffering in times of trouble and plague. Most of all, inspire us to restore the world and make all things new.

Amen.

Guidelines

For a teacher who has a limited amount of time to spend on the Holocaust, it can be hard to figure out how to get started.

What should the curriculum be? Where can the teacher get a curriculum that fits their needs and the time they have?

In general, teachers can have a lot to plan and not as much time to Set your parameters and search.

The site is built with the recognition that teachers tend to take from different places to build a curriculum, but they'd often like a simpler process, Haumschild said. "The intention is to create a unique one-stop shop for teachers to create a toolbox of lessons," said Lone, the West Bend teacher, who worked on the site idea with Haumschild.

Earlier this year, the state Leg-
