

Hot Diggity Dog! Baseball and a Movie

By Adrian Richfield

CEEW Adult Education will present a special summer program in July celebrating one of our favorite pastimes: baseball!

Please make your reservation as soon as possible for this July 17 event.

The fun begins at 5 p.m. for a picnic on CEEW's front lawn. The menu includes kosher hot dogs with condiments, buns, chips, fruit, peanuts, cookies, brownies, and lemonade and other drinks. In case of rain, we will meet in the social hall.

Friends, neighbors, and baseball fans are all welcome to attend this event. Baseball attire would be appropriate but is not required.

The cost is $10 per person if you plan to attend both the picnic and the movie, and $5 for just the movie. The event should end around 8 p.m.

The deadline for reservations is Monday, July 11. If you plan to attend, mail your check (made out to CEEW) to:

Adrian Richfield
 1334 Bluebird Terrace
 Waukesha WI 53188

At about 6:15 we will head to the sanctuary to watch "Heading Home: The Tale of Team Israel." This film won eight US Film Festival audience awards. And just wait until you see the team's mascot: Mensch on a Bench!

The CEEW Dining Group is taking the summer off. Contact Elly Kraines at ellyanna340@gmail.com if you would like to join the group this fall.

New Magen David Dedicated

On June 12, just before the start of the CEEW 2022 Annual Meeting, we gathered to formally dedicate the temple's new Magen David, which was crafted by member Pete Koszarek and installed last year. More photos from Adrian Richfield are included in the Annual Meeting article on page 4. — Editor

Seeking Your Summer Vacation Stories

Members are encouraged to send summer travel stories and photos by August 10 for a "Where in the World was CEEW this Summer?" feature article in the September Bulletin. Whether you went to Israel, took a weekend trip to Door County, or had a photogenic staycation, we would love to hear from you. Email your text to susu78@aol.com in the body of your email or as a Word attachment. Attach those photos and captions, too!

On Doing Judaism Well

In a traditional synagogue, Torah is read aloud on Shabbat, Festivals, Mondays, and Thursdays. Reading Torah on Shabbat and Festivals is understandable, but... why Mondays and Thursdays?

The Rabbis' explanation was that no Jew should go more than three days without hearing words of Torah, but another reason for this custom was purely pragmatic: Mondays and Thursdays were the market days in Biblical Jerusalem. The people were already there, so public reading from the Torah was done on those days.

I thought about this pragmatism during our celebration of Shavuot last month. That Saturday evening we observed Havdalah, had a Jewish Trivia contest, did a little bit of learning, enjoyed some live music provided by A'band'n All Hope, and, of course, ate cheesecake! It was a lovely and creative evening.

Cantor's Column

By Cantor Martin Levson, CEEW Sole/Soul Spiritual Leader

One of my teachers, Dr. Larry Hoffman, wrote an article some years ago called “Doing It Right or Doing It Well.” From a halachic perspective, CEEW did not observe Shavuot “right.” We didn’t have a worship service, we didn’t hear the 10 Commandments read from the Torah, and we didn’t stay up all night studying. (Yes, that’s a thing on Shavuot!)

Instead, thanks to the Adult Education Committee we had a creative Shavuot “experience” that appealed to lots of people. I would say that CEEW did Shavuot “well” this year.

As I begin my second year as your Spiritual Leader, I look forward to continuing to work with Temple leadership and CEEW members to create new and different ways of observing and celebrating our ancient traditions.

Reform Judaism has changed dramatically since the days of my childhood, and I know that it will continue to evolve. Together, let’s make Congregation Emanu-El a place where we “do Judaism well.” ✨

Ritual Committee Report

By Mari-Claire Zimmerman

June has finally arrived — in fact, by the time you read this, June will be over. We are now enjoying beautiful summer weather. In the Torah, we will start the book of Numbers, BaMidbar.

To me, this means I start to think about the upcoming holidays...the High Holidays: Yom Kippur and Rosh HaShanah. Since this issue of the bulletin will cover both July and August, it is not too soon to remind members of CEEW that in August they will be receiving phone calls and/or e-mails asking each of them to participate in the High Holiday services for CEEW.

Erev Rosh HaShannah is Sunday September 25 and Rosh Hashanah is, of course, Monday, September 26. Kol Nidre is Tuesday, October 4 and Yom Kippur day is Wednesday, October 5.

This means that we have August and nearly the entire month of September to plan the holidays. So, if you receive a call or an e-mail asking if you want to participate this year by reading a selection in English or in Hebrew, please be ready to say “yes.” Only those members who are known to be comfortable with Hebrew will be offered Hebrew parts.

The services will be in person but a Zoom option may be available. However, those of you with reading parts will most likely be asked to appear in person at the services. In the meantime, enjoy the summer, stay healthy, and come to our summer services in person or via Zoom.

School's not out forever! Religious school begins again on Sunday, September 11. Contact Carrie Barbakoff (eddirector@waukeshatemple.org) to register.

2022 Annual Meeting Report – In Person At Last!

By CEEW President Laurie Schwartz

Our successful annual meeting was held Sunday June 12th at Temple. After our annual meeting was held online the past two years, it was a joy to be able to meet in person. The morning started off with food, of course, and a lot of schmoozing. We were able to dedicate our new star on the front of the building and give thanks again to Pete Koszarek for his beautiful creation. It is truly a work of art!

The meeting followed with reports from Cantor Levson, Carrie Barbakoff (Education Director), Laurie Sweed Schwartz (President) Deb Hacker (Sisterhood Co- President) and Alan Meyers, Treasurer.

Fortunately, most of the board has committed to extending their existing terms. Leaving the board after two years as secretary is Denise Stodola. She has been a joy to work with and we thank her for all dedication to CEEW. Pati Allen Brinkman has agreed to take the secretary position, and Rick Steinberg has agreed to finish the last year of her two-year term as a trustee.

While we were able to avoid raising dues during the pandemic, it is now necessary to do so. This is not something that is done lightly. After much discussion, the board unanimously voted to raise dues 10%. The dues increase also passed unanimously at the annual meeting.

At last year's annual meeting the issue of allowing long time non-Jewish spouses/partners to continue their membership after the passing of their Jewish partner was raised. We have seen how supporting and involved many non-Jewish partners are, and we agreed that we want them to remain part of our community. Ann Meyers graciously wrote this amendment, which was unanimously passed by the board and the general membership.

We are fortunate to have dedicated community members who generously donate their time and expertise. Many of our committees are in need of additional help. If you are interested in helping in any way, please contact me as soon as possible. Reach out and be part of our community.

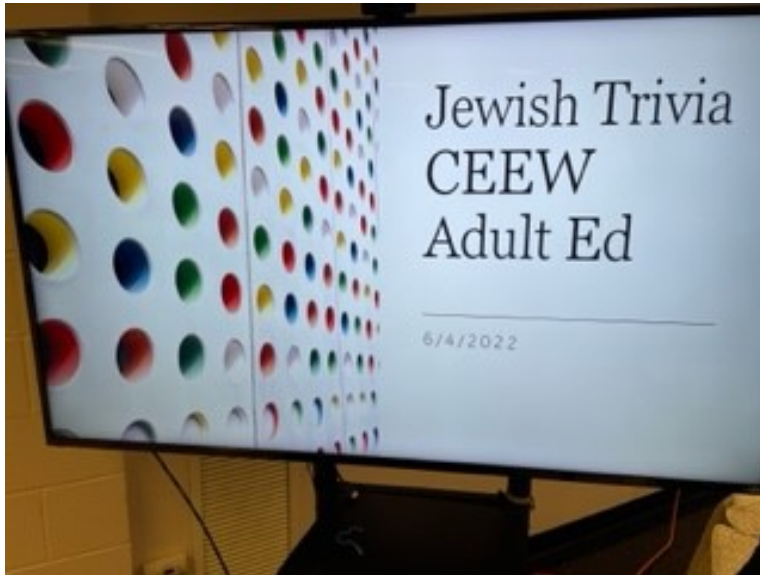

Thank you to everyone who helped make this year's meeting a success. I look forward to seeing everyone at our picnic shabbats and all the other exciting programs we have planned this summer and fall. ✨

CEEW's Midrash Class will start up again in the fall. Contact the Temple Administrator to find out how and when to join the group.

On Saturday, June 4th CEEW had its first Jewish Trivia Night as part of celebrating Shavuot and our returning annual end of the year event. It was unanimous that this should be a repeating yearly program as a good time was had by all who participated. Along with Jewish trivia questions we had food, drinks, music by our wonderful Klezmer Temple Band, a talk about the holiday, Shavuot by Cantor Levson and did I mention food? We had cheese and crackers, wine, quiche and blitzes — dessert was, of course, cheesecake in honor of the holiday. Team 3 won by a narrow margin after successfully navigating two rounds of Jewish trivia.

Perhaps the Shavuot offerings were a little cheesy.

Molly Schmidt has an Adventure at the Maccabi Games

By Loren Schmidt and Adrian Richfield

Molly Schmidt first heard of the JCC Maccabi Games in January of 2020 from her aunt. Her 14-year-old cousin was going to swim with her JCC that summer at the competition. Molly was too young to participate that year, and the Games were canceled for that summer —and the summer of 2021.

This year, the JCC Maccabi Games will be held in San Diego, hosted by The Lawrence Family JCC on the Jacobs Family Campus in early August. Molly’s cousin is not going, but Molly will be participating in the Maccabi Games. With help from Education Director Carrie Barbakoff, Molly was able to join the five-person delegation from the Milwaukee JCC.

The JCC Maccabi Games are an Olympic-style competition for Jewish teens from 13 to 16 years old. Athletes from the United States, Canada, Mexico, Israel, and a few other countries compete in events such as swimming, basketball, volleyball, baseball, soccer, ice hockey, flag football, dance, golf, e-sports, swimming, tennis, and table tennis.

Molly is excited to meet not only other Jewish teens from the Milwaukee area who will be a part of her delegation, but all of the others who will be competing at the games. This year, over 3,000 teen athletes will be participating.

Molly is expecting to swim in 12 events, including two relays that will be made up of athletes from a mix of JCCs.

“The idea of meeting and competing with so many other Jewish athletes is exciting and fun!” Molly said. “The competitor in me is looking forward to competing on a national level to see how I do.”

We here at CEEW wish Molly all the best! We will follow up with her Maccabi Games adventure when she returns in August.

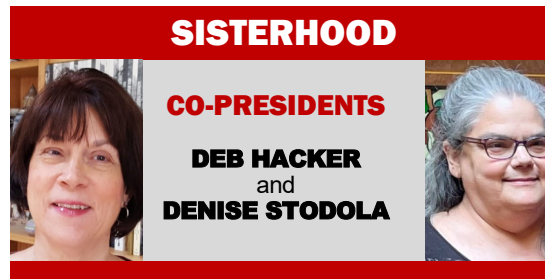

Volunteers are needed for the member-led Friday night Shabbat services. Contact Mari-Claire Zimmerman (wzimmerman1@wi.rr.com) for more information.

Sisterhood Happenings

President's Letter

From the Desk of Co-President
Deb Hacker

I often think about the wonderful prayer we use to sing in English at our Shabbat services called "Grant us Peace, (Thy most precious gift)". Originally written into the old Union Prayer book (1984-1895), it was based on the Sim Shalom and Shalom Rav prayers. The Union Prayer Book, noted for its brevity, was published more than a century ago, and "stated the essence of liberal Judaism" according to Rabbi Lawrence Hoffman. It preceded the Gates of Prayer we used to pray from.

In the "sleepless summer" of 2019, I wrote my own version of this prayer which began "Grant Me sleep, Thy most precious gift." Music and Tehillim (Psalms) became part of my sleep hygiene program to cure my 2-4 a.m. insomnia which was initiated by the frequent cries of our new puppy. Psalm 8 was especially helpful: "In peace and harmony will I lie down and sleep, for You, G-d alone make me dwell in security." The verse 4:5 says, "Tremble and do not sin; reflect in your hearts upon your beds, and be silent". This verse teaches us to recite the bedtime Shema prayer. This prayer is thought to protect a person physically and spiritually during sleep (Midrash Tehillim). Putting oneself in the right frame of mind and stating the Oneness of G-d definitely promotes sleep. (But sadly for me, falling asleep was not the problem.)

Now a person can practice daily exercise, relaxation or meditation before bed, keep the bedroom dark, cool and quiet, avoid stimulating TV or social media, enjoy a nighttime brew of herbal tea, all to help promote sleep. But the wonderful teachings, songs and Tehillim connect us to our larger Jewish family stretching all the way back to King David (thought to be the author of the Tehillim).

Connection is what CEEW Sisterhood is about — bonding and praying with other women, learning together, helping each other and the community, and laughing together. We hope you can all join us for our annual Sisterhood Shabbat in Frame Park Pavilion at 7 p.m. on Friday, July 8th where you will hear women's voices join together and praise the ONE.

(See article below.)

I hope all CEEW women will join us for our Sisterhood Annual Meeting on Sunday, August 28 at 11-1 pm at Genesee Sunset Park. If you would like to join or renew your membership you may do so at the picnic. (See article for more details.) We want to connect with you all beyond our programming and our Mitzvot projects this past year. We want your input, ideas and participation especially during a brief breakout sessions during our meeting.

Certainly the last few years have been one of social isolation, worry and maybe insomnia like my own. Joining other women in celebrating Jewish womanhood and having some fun IN person is something we all need.

Sisterhood Shabbat

By Mari-Claire Zimmerman

In the month of July it will be time to enjoy a beautiful 4th of July. During this week of vacation time for many, we will also celebrate the CEEW Sisterhood Shabbat on Friday, July 8th. We are finishing the planning stages right now. Those who have replied to my calls or e-mails agreeing to read a part in the service will have received a copy of the service and of their readings. Cantor Levson will be leading the songs and prayers. Family members are invited to join us for this service as it is for all CEEW members.

The service will be at Waukesha Frame Park Picnic shelter and will start at 7 p.m. If you have time to come early to help set-up or time to stay afterwards to help clean-up, that would certainly be appreciated. We will have a festive oneg at the park after the service. Everyone is invited to bring a treat to share. I look forward to seeing you and everyone on this special Shabbat.

Sisterhood Annual Meeting and Picnic

All CEEW women are invited to our Sisterhood annual meeting to be held at beautiful and pastoral Genesee Sunset Park S30W28452 Sunset Drive (County DE) - west of the intersection of CTH D and DE in the town of Genesee and just west of Waukesha on Sunday August 28, 2022 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. We have the lovely, sheltered pavilion with a ladies room on our side of the structure. Parking is adjacent to the pavilion.

Our short formal meeting will start the morning off including voting on the slate of officers for 22-24, budget and approval of minutes. Small break out sessions will then take place in order to ascertain members' ideas of what they envision Sisterhood to be.

A deli picnic lunch will be served buffet -style with a variety of sandwiches, homemade healthy salads and desserts. Music inspired by the 70's will be performed during lunch and thereafter by the creative Fran Brown. Time for schmoozing and getting reacquainted is planned as well as a few surprises. Our treasurer, Barb Dailey, will be available for you to renew or initiate your membership.

Support Sisterhood's CEEW and community Mitzvot/Tikkun Olam projects, scholarships, WRJ (Women of Reform Judaism) and informative and fun Jewish programming by joining CEEW Sisterhood.

RSVP by August 14th to Deb Hacker at jolly-roger@wi.rr.com or text her at 262.853.1869.

Sisterhood Sponsors Molly Schmidt in Maccabi Games

CEEW Sisterhood has granted student-athlete Molly Schmidt $200 toward her participation in the Maccabi Games in San Diego, California this July/August. Molly is a student in Mrs. Meyers' "Jewish Adulting" class in CEEW Sunday School. Her mother, Loren, is a member of CEEW Sisterhood and on the Temple Board.

Molly explained that her love of swimming began at a young age. She currently swims competitively for her local Y team, the Pabst Farms Piranhas. Molly's application for Maccabi Games sponsorship informed the Sisterhood Board that she didn't have a chance to meet many other Jewish young people growing up. Her wish is to compete in swimming, but also to "make lasting friendships and life long memories" with the other Jewish teens.

CEEW Sisterhood supports the children, teens, and grandchildren of Sisterhood members in their Jewish camping experiences and Jewish communal experiences. We are proud to offer this grant to such a deserving and talented young student athlete such as Molly. ★

Moonlight, Summer Moonlight By Emily Jane Brontë

'Tis moonlight, summer moonlight,
All soft and still and fair;
The solemn hour of midnight
Breathes sweet thoughts everywhere,

But most where trees are sending
Their breezy boughs on high,
Or stooping low are lending
A shelter from the sky.

And there in those wild bowers
A lovely form is laid;
Green grass and dew-steeped flowers
Wave gently round her head.

Desperately Seeking Inspiration?

As the summer passes, this Jewish year draws to a close and we prepare for a new beginning: new cycles of Torah, of holidays, of rituals, of seasons. It's a time when we go inward and become more thoughtful and deliberate, and it's a natural time to express our thoughts and feelings in poetry.

The authors of the books featured here have taken inspiration from Torah portions and American Jewishness to inspire and inform their creative work. Perhaps they will inspire you as well. Ordering books from these links will help support CEEW: We Who Desire, God Wrestler, 70 Faces, The Torah Garden.

We wish you a poetic and creative summer, and we look forward to being able to see and share your work.

Top Ten Jewish Best Sellers Fiction

1. The Books of Jacob, by Olga Tokarczuk. “Olga Tokarczuk is one of our greatest living fiction writers, Jennifer Croft’s translations are always magnificent, and this epic thousand-page novel is said to be their magnum opus... This could well be a decade-defining book akin to Bolaño’s 2666.” — AV Club
2. Three Sisters, by Heather Morris
3. The Postmistress of Paris, by Meg Clayton. “This gripping historical love story from Clayton brings readers into the courageous lives of those struggling just to stay alive and those risking everything to help.” — Booklist
4. Our Country Friends, by Gary Shteyngart
5. The Cellist, by Daniel Silva

Nonfiction

1. The Betrayal of Anne Frank: A Cold Case Investigation, by Rosemary Sullivan. “Hums with living history, human warmth and indignation....Sullivan circles all of these possibilities like Agatha Christie with Zoom and a time machine.” — New York Times
2. The Complete Maus: A Survivor’s Tale, by Art Spiegelman [now back in stock at amazon.com]
3. Crying in H Mart: A Memoir, by Michelle Zauner
